

Active Member Honor Code

I commit to having fun and modeling authentic friendship with the new members.

I commit to modeling behavior that is in alignment with Beta's core values, mission and vision throughout recruitment and new member orientation period.

I commit to demonstrating a genuine care for the new members. This is demonstrated by:

- Asking positive questions and engaging in regular dialogue with new members.
- Attending new member education (when invited) and brotherhood activities.
- Avoiding activities that result in new members being humiliated, shamed, or embarrassed and intervening to stop such practices whenever possible.
- Avoiding activities that result in new members having earn their place in the brotherhood and intervening to stop such practices whenever possible.

I commit to supporting the personal values of each new member. This is demonstrated by:

- Participating in brotherhood events that encourage new members to share personal stories through conversation or activities.
- Working diligently to demonstrate a connection between the new member's personal values and Beta's 5 Core Values.
- Discouraging new members from compromising their personal values or beliefs for the sake of the fraternity.

I commit to supporting the academic achievements of the new member class. This is demonstrated by:

- Asking new members about their coursework.
- Strictly adhering to the approved calendar of events for new members.
- Working diligently to avoid over programming the new members with fraternity related activities that prevent new members from getting adequate sleep and study time.
- Celebrating academic wins.

I commit to modeling healthy group membership. This is demonstrated by:

- Attending and participating in chapter meetings.
- Attending and participating in service.
- Modeling campus involvement to the new members.
- Holding myself and my brothers accountable to this honor code and Beta's values.

Signed: _____

Date: _____